

SAMFSN

South Asian Military Family Support Network

SAMFSN is a non profit 501 3(c) * tax-exempt organization, supported and operated by a team of dedicated volunteers

Our Mission

Support military personnel serving in the U.S. Armed Forces.
Help advance cultural diversity within the U.S. Armed Forces.

SAMFSN Needs Volunteers

We are looking for student or adult volunteers who can help with following projects/tasks:

- Help us as an individual volunteer or as an organization.
- Help us build content for SAMFSN website to support military families.
- Help us by hosting cultural events for the Department of Defense (DOD), fund raising events, military family support workshops etc.
- Conduct research on various topics and areas of interest to promote the support of military families, cultural diversity and interfaith integration.

We need dedicated volunteers with one or more of the following skills:

- Volunteers with good writing, editing and online research skills. Remote work is possible. Part time/weekend work is possible.
- Volunteers with web site development, content management skills.
- Outgoing volunteers who are located in the DC/MD/VA region and can help to host cultural events. We will reimburse all approved expenses incurred.

* 501 3(c) is pending IRS approval

Contact Us: volunteer@samfsn.org or Call 240-600-8136

Email: Uma Chaudhary UmaChaud@gmail.com for details

Donate to our cause

www.samfsn.org

Donate to our cause